THE WIND OF CHANGE: IMPROVING TEACHING PRACTICE THROUGH PARTNERSHIP
August 30, 2022
on-line

The INSHIP Team is delighted to invite you to the International Conference THE WIND OF CHANGE: IMPROVING TEACHING PRACTICE THROUGH PARTNERSHIP (INSHIP-2022), which will take place in virtual format the 30th of August 2022, hosted by INSHIP Team and European Commission(Erasmus +)

The International Conference INSHIP-2022 is an international conference dedicated to the advancement of the theory and practices in teacher training and the role of collaboration and professional learning communities in bridging the gap between theory and practice in teacher education, which can be exceeded in an authentic learning context, i.e., in the concrete work environments.

The INSHIP-2022 promotes collaborative excellence between academicians and professionals from Primary, Secondary and University Education, involved in teacher practice.

The INSHIP-2022 will be held online.

The aim of INSHIP-2022 is to provide an opportunity for academicians and professionals from various educational fields in Primary, Secondary and University education to share experiences and to know the latest trends in teacher training through internships and collaboration. The INSHIP-2022 invites research papers that encompass conceptual analysis, design implementation and performance evaluation about experiences in teacher training through internships and collaboration. Submissions are accepted in English.

Who should attend the INSHIP-2022?

Graduates/Postgraduates, Primary and Secondary Education Professors, Faculty (Teachers, Lecturers, Researchers, Professors, Head of Department, Deans), Vice-Chancellors, Chancellors, College and University Presidents), Education Policy Makers, Educational Advisors, School Principals, and Stakeholders who care deeply about meeting the current needs of teacher education, through improved internships and collaboration.

The INSHIP-2022 Conference stems from the INSHIP project (Teaching Practice Partnership Model in Pre-Service Teacher Education), whose main objective is to develop educational innovation in the area of higher education through a complementary partnership model for teaching practice in initial teacher education.

Conference Topics:

- Educational principles of partnership collaboration.
